SEIU Local 521 Constitutional Bylaws – do not provide for a Standing Committee to Hear SEIU Local 521 Proposed Bylaws Changes.

As change is inevitable it seems prudent to establish a Standing Committee to hear proposed changes to the Bylaws. Therefore, the following Amendment to the SEIU Local 521 Bylaws is proposed:

Article XV Section 2 Amendment, paragraph 2:

A Standing Committee with a minimum of three (3) and a maximum of six (6) members selected from across the Local by the Local 521 President with concurrence of the Executive Board shall be established to hear proposed amendments to the SEIU Local 521 Bylaws and at the appropriate time present viable changes to the Executive Board for their consideration. As the members of this Committee come and go, new members shall be appointed as above. The members of this Committee shall be members in good standing for at least two (2) years. The Chair of this Committee, at the time of appointment, shall be a current Executive Board Officer or Delegate, however, a Chair may remain on the Committee as a member if asked by the President as long as s/he remains a member in good standing, even if s/he no longer retains the status of Executive Board Member or Officer.
