

CITY OF SALINAS

Bargaining began on September 21 – Are you ready?

The Blue Collar and Supervisory Units elected bargaining team has been working hard for months, detailing the proposals that members have stated are important to their work as City of Salinas employees. The SMEA unit has been discussing and preparing their proposals so that we can stand TOGETHER and remain STRONG at the bargaining table.

After 8 years, your employment contract is now up for renewal; this time around, we are going to FIGHT for a fair contract that respects and values workers, and move forward from a recession that decimated our workforce.

A contract is only as strong as the membership standing behind it – YOU need to get involved with YOUR union if you want to improve the lives of working families in Salinas. The time is now - get involved and make it count.
