To City of Santa Cruz Police Department Officers and Staff:

As union brothers and sisters in the City and County of Santa Cruz, we extend our sincerest condolences to the families and friends of our fallen brother, Detective Sgt. Loran "Butch" Baker, and our sister, Detective Elizabeth Butler.

The death of two of our finest City of Santa Cruz Police Officers is a tragedy for our entire community. Their combined 38-year dedication to our public safety and commitment to a higher calling is priceless. We will never forget their proud dedication to the City of Santa Cruz and we send all families strength and support in these difficult days to come.

We respect, value, and honor the Santa Cruz Police Department and our officers for their unwavering dedication to keeping our communities safe. We stand in strong solidarity and shared mourning during this tragic period.

On behalf of all SEIU Local 521 City and County members, Executive Board and staff, we extend our deepest condolences and sympathy.

In Solidarity,

Deborah Narvaez, Regional Director

Doris Henry, City of Santa Cruz Chapter President

Veronica Rodriguez, County of Santa Cruz Chapter President

Matt Nathanson, Regional Vice President
