Neither the Employer nor the Union shall discriminate for or against any employee covered by this Agreement on account of race, sexual preference, color, religion, national origin, age, sex, political affiliation, marital status, medical condition, disabled veteran or physical or mental disability. The Employer and the Union agree that the provisions of this Agreement shall be implemented and applied to all employees without discrimination on the same basis.

The Employer shall supply the Union with an accompanying list with the names, (alpha by last name) addresses, classifications, membership status, Social Security Number, pay period number, base wage rate and deduction amount for bargaining unit employees. The Employer will also provide the Union with the names of all bargaining unit employees terminated in the intervening period. Terminations, leaves, new hires, retirements shall be provided every pay period.

2. Charity Fee Deduction

The Employer agrees to submit to the Union on a quarterly basis, a list of all bargaining unit members including names, social security number, addresses, telephone numbers, classifications, hire dates, worksite location, and wage rates.

Section 3.6 - COPE Deduction

Employees may voluntarily elect to have contributions deducted from their paychecks for Local 521 COPE fund. Such deductions shall be continued until such authorization is revoked in writing. The Employer shall transmit to the Union such deductions once monthly on a check separate from regular dues deduction.

ARTICLE 4 - UNION BUSINESS

Section 4.1 - Access

Any Union representative who is not an on duty employee must, upon entering the premises, sign the guest register and report to the Administrator or designee. The Employer will make certain designated meeting areas/rooms available to the Union upon request for the purpose of transacting Union business. Such business will occur during non-work times (e.g. breaks, lunch, before and after work, when clients or family members are not present). The Union will make every effort to prearrange visits with workers to the extent possible. The rights of clients/families shall be respected by all parties.

Section 4.2 - Stewards

A Steward and/or the Internal Organizer may present the issues/grievances to management and see that the terms and conditions of the agreement are observed, provided that such activity does not unduly interfere with the work assignment of the Steward(s) or other employees and shall not interfere with or be in the presence of any client or client family.

The Union will notify the Employer, in writing, of the names of all duly authorized stewards and internal organizers within thirty (30) days of execution of this agreement or assignment/appointment changes as they are made.

Section 4.3 - Representation in Meetings

Employees have the right to have a Union Steward present at meetings with supervisors or management representatives when the worker believes that such a meeting may be accusatory or disciplinary in nature.

Section 4.4 - Personnel Files

Representatives must request and obtain permission from the employee and the Administrator or designee prior to accessing information from personnel files.

Section 4.5 - Bulletin Boards

The Employer shall provide space in the facility in the employee lounge and other places as appropriate for bulletin boards (including Suite 200). Postings shall be on union stationery or otherwise identified with the name of the Union Local. The Union assumes all responsibility for material that it authorizes for posting on bulletin boards. Materials posted or displayed in areas other than the designated bulletin boards may be removed by the Employer.

Section 4.6 - Use of Facilities

The Union shall be allowed access to Employer facilities for conducting meetings and other union business. Such facilities shall be limited to designated meeting areas/rooms. Use of such facilities must be reserved in advance where possible through the prescribed method. The Union shall be responsible for providing materials and supplies necessary for its representation of bargaining unit members and for conducting business on the Employer's premises.

Within ten (10) working days of the end of each pay period the Employer will notify the Union of the name of the affected bargaining unit member, classification, shift, the date of hire, the rate of pay, and the bargaining unit member's home address and phone number of all bargaining unit members hired during the pay period. The indemnification of the Employer according to Section 3.4 of the contract applies to this section as well. The Employer shall send a separate list of new hires to the chief steward within the same time period.

Section 4.8 - Printing of Agreement

Starlight will host the PDF version of the contract on the SharePoint site and ensure access to all Starlight Staff. PDF can be printed as needed. SEIU 521 will print their own copies as needed once PDF version is agreed upon by both parties.

Section 4.9 - Union Orientation

An on-duty union steward will have fifteen (15) minutes during the Employer's regular orientation to make a presentation to new bargaining unit members. The Employer will notify the Union one (1) week in advance of such orientation sessions.

Section 4.10 - Negotiating Team

The Employer will pay release time for attendance at bargaining sessions for up to four (4) bargaining unit members.

Hours for such release time will not be included for calculation of overtime hours.

Release time for negotiations for productivity purposes during negotiations, hours of work time spend in negotiations will be deducted for productivity at the end of the month. Parties will agree on the amount of time allocated for each bargaining member at the end of each bargaining session. Sixty-five percent (65%) productivity will equal total hours of work available minus agree hours of negotiations divided by billable hours.

Representation - both parties recognize that a fully representative negotiating team is advantageous to the collective bargaining agreement that is most fully representative of the covered staff. Therefore, the Union will solicit and try to have representation from multiple programs, varying levels of positions and diverse demographics. This would be especially important for negotiations and committee work.

Section 4.11 - Client Care/Safety Committee Labor Management Meetings

The parties agree to establish a joint labor/management committee, between the parties that will be comprised of three (3) members appointed by the Union and three (3) members appointed by management. The standing agenda will be to discuss and recommend measures to improving client care, worksite issues and health and safety in the workplace. The standing agenda will serve as documentation and management's response. Such meetings shall be held every other month, but maybe canceled by mutual agreement of both parties.

ARTICLE 5 - INTRODUCTORY PERIOD

Section 5.1

Employees shall serve an introductory period of one hundred eighty (180) calendar days before achieving regular status in their position. Employees may be disciplined or discharged at any time, with or without cause and without recourse to grievance procedure within the introductory period, except as defined by California and Federal Law.

ARTICLE 6 - SENIORITY

Section 6.1 - Definition

Seniority shall be defined as length of continuous service with the Employer since last date of hire, or the date an employee first entered the bargaining unit from a non-bargaining unit position, except as otherwise provided in this article. Upon successful completion of the introductory period, such employees will have seniority dating from the latest date of hire.

An employee on authorized unpaid leave of absence shall not have his/her anniversary date and seniority adjusted if the duration of the leave is six (6) months or less. No seniority will be adjusted if such leave was maternity, military or worker's compensation. Lists ranking workers by seniority shall be maintained by the Employer and shall be provided to the Union, upon request, when there is a question relating to seniority involved.

ARTICLE 7 - LAYOFFS

Section 7.1 - Notice of Layoffs

If the Employer decides to lay off bargaining unit members, the Employer will give the Union and any affected bargaining unit members thirty (30) days' notice or two (2) weeks' pay if the Union does not receive such timely notice.

Employer and the Union shall meet prior to any such layoff to discuss alternatives to and impact of the layoff. However, an agreement between the Employer and the Union is not required or necessary in order for the Employer to implement the layoff. If the number of employees affected is such that the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act is applicable, the Employer shall comply with the provisions of said Act, as well as layoff rights of this agreement.

Section 7.2 - Implementation of Layoff or Reduction in Force

The least senior employee in the classification in which the layoff occurs shall be the first laid off, except where bilingual skills and/or special qualifications are required to meet agency contractual agreements. Examples of these qualifications may include: expertise with gang issues, drugs and alcohol, probation youth, transitional-age youth, and specialized therapy modality (BSFT, Art Therapy, etc.). Seniority will not accrue or diminish during a layoff and anniversary dates will be adjusted to reflect layoff. However, laid off workers shall remain on the recall list and accrue seniority while workers with special skill(s) but less seniority are retained.

Section 7.3 (a) - Recall from Layoff

Recall rights last for one (1) year after the bargaining unit member has been laid off. During that period, bargaining unit members on the recall list shall be offered vacancies in positions in which the bargaining unit member previously served and is qualified before any promotions or new hires. Transfers may occur before recall from layoff. Recall shall be by inverse order of layoff. When recalled, a laid off bargaining unit member will return to the appropriate wage rate and vacation accrual and all other benefits that s/he had obtained prior to the layoff.

Section 7.3 (b) - Effects of layoff

Effects of layoff will be negotiated at the time layoffs are announced.

Section 7.4 - Placements Instead of Layoff

Bargaining unit members within classifications affected by layoff will be informed of the pending layoff that will impact them. Affected employees will be required to transfer to any vacant position for which they are qualified and eligible.

A bargaining unit member who is laid off may claim a vacancy or bump the least senior bargaining unit member from a position in the same classification or in a classification formerly held by the laid off bargaining unit member. If no such positions exist, the employee will be laid off and subject to recall.

Prior to bumping, non-impacted workers may volunteer to be laid off with all layoff rights under this collective bargaining agreement.

If an employee fails to accept another open position for which they are eligible and qualified for, the employee will be considered to have voluntarily resigned for declining work. As a result, that employee would not be eligible for layoff rights.

Section 7.5 - Program Closures

Employees who are impacted due to program closures that do not result in lay off will be eligible to bid in any open position in order of seniority.

Special skills and qualification and/or ability shall be taken into consideration when filling such positions.

ARTICLE 8 - POSITION VACANCIES

Section 8.1 - Vacancies

A bargaining unit position vacancy shall be posted in the facility concurrently with or before any advertisement of that vacancy to the general public. Such vacancies are posted for a period of ten (10) workdays, excluding Saturday and Sunday, before being filled. Each employee who applies for a posted position shall receive full consideration for appointment for said position and shall be interviewed if they meet the minimum qualifications. In the event that there are sufficient internal and external qualified applicants, the Employer will give priority for the position to the internal applicant. Where there are greater than three (3) qualified internal applicants for the position, the Employer shall select the applicant to fill the position from among the three (3) most senior internal applicants. If there are fewer than three (3) qualified internal applicants for the position, the Employer will select the most qualified applicant from among the qualified internal applicants and the most qualified external applicants. Where qualifications of internal and external are equal, the Employer shall give preference to the most qualified internal applicant.

Section 8.2 - Posting of Vacancies

Qualifications for vacant positions shall appear on position postings and shall be based on job requirements. The Employer will provide, by mail/email, one copy of the job posting to the Union and Chief Steward at the time it is posted.

Section 8.3 - Promotions

1. The bargaining unit member's anniversary date for the purpose of performance evaluations shall change to the date the promotion becomes effective. Such change shall not affect the bargaining unit members' seniority as defined in Article 6.
2. Bargaining unit members who are promoted to a new position shall be given training and orientation as to the tasks and responsibilities of the new position and shall have their performance evaluated at the end of the first three (3) months.
3. If a bargaining unit member is promoted to a position within the unit, the Employer shall return the bargaining unit member to his/her former position if the bargaining unit member has not satisfactorily performed the responsibilities and tasks of the new position. This provision will only apply during the first six (6) months after the promotion.
4. An involuntary return to former position during the first three (3) months is not grievable.

Section 8.4 - Transfers

Bargaining unit members who are transferred to a new position or new job assignment shall be given training and orientation as to the tasks and responsibilities of the new positions.

1. The bargaining unit member's anniversary date for the purpose of performance evaluations shall change to the date the transfer becomes effective. Such change shall not affect the bargaining unit member seniority as defined in Article 6.
2. Bargaining unit members who are transferred to a new position shall be given training and orientation as to the tasks and responsibilities of the new position and shall have their performance evaluated at the end of the first three (3) months.
3. If a bargaining unit member is transferred to a position within the unit, the Employer shall return the bargaining unit member to his/her former position if the bargaining unit member has not satisfactorily performed the responsibilities and tasks of the new position. This provision will only apply during the first three (3) months after the transfer.
4. An involuntary return to former position during the first three (3) months is not grievable.

ARTICLE 9 - JOB DESCRIPTIONS

Section 9.1

It is agreed that the Employer and the Union shall maintain descriptions setting forth job duties in accordance with duties necessary to perform the job.

At the time an employee commences work or is assigned a new position, s/he will be provided with a job description outlining the duties and assignments of that position as an aid to understanding the requirements of the new job. Job descriptions shall be made available to the Union upon request.

If the Employer decides to revise or create new job descriptions, it will provide the affected bargaining unit members of that classification and the Union with a fifteen (15) business day notice of that decision and an opportunity to meet and confer.

ARTICLE 10 - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

Section 10.1

The exercise of the powers, rights, authority, duties and responsibilities by the Employer as set forth in this agreement, and the adoption of policies, rules, and practices in furtherance thereof, and the use of judgment and discretion in connection therewith shall be limited only by the specific and express terms of this agreement, and then only to the extent such specific and express terms are in conformance with law. Should any term or provision of this agreement conflict with any law, including but not limited to the regulations and codes with which the Employer is obligated to comply, the law, regulations or code shall prevail.

Section 10.2

 - o. establish methods of operation and procedures, including for example, program and client evaluation procedures and the institution of technological alterations and processes or equipment or both.

ARTICLE 11 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Section 11.1 - Grievance Defined

Grievance, as referred to in this Article, includes every dispute concerning application or interpretation of this contract and/or any dispute concerning wages, hours or working conditions of bargaining unit employees.

All such disputes shall be subject to the grievance procedure. Proceedings at any level of the procedure will be as informal and confidential as possible, understanding that the Union may publicize the issues of a grievance, and in so doing, agree to hold the Employer harmless.

Both the Employer and the Union pledge their active, aggressive and continuing efforts to secure prompt disposition of requests, complaints and grievances, and agree that most disputes can be and should be resolved in the oral discussions. In the few cases where such is not accomplished, the following procedure will apply:

1. Step 1 - Informal Oral Written Grievance

Any grievance must be presented in writing to the employee's immediate supervisor no later than ten (10) working days after the date on which the grieving employee or the Union had knowledge of the incident upon which the grievance is based. The bargaining unit member may notify and/or be represented by the Union in the grievance at his/her discretion. The grievant and/or the Union Steward shall be responsible to notify the Union of the grievance. Such oral presentation should occur prior to the filing of a written grievance in Step 2. The Employer's designated representative shall reply orally in writing to the grievant and the Union Shop Steward (if grievant was represented) within ten (10) calendar days after discussion of the oral grievance.

2. Step 2 - Formal Written Grievance

A grievance involving the discharge of any employee covered by this agreement must be presented in writing to the administrator at this step within ten (10) working days of the employee's release.

In order for a grievance from Step 1 to be considered further, the grievance must be presented in writing to the Administrator or designated representative, within ten (10) working days after the Employer's grievance response provided for in Step 1.

The Administrator or designee shall respond to the grievance in writing within ten (10) working days after such meeting with a copy to the Union office.

3. Step 3 - Corporate Human Resources

If the grievant is not satisfied with the response to the grievance in Step 2, the grievant may file a Step 3 grievance with corporate Human Resources within ten (10) working days of the Step 2 response from the Administrator. At the request of either party, the corporate Human Resources Director or designee shall schedule a meeting with the grievant within seven (7) calendar days after receipt of the written grievance in an effort to resolve the grievance. The grievant may notify and/or be represented by the Union in the grievance at his/her discretion. Within ten (10) working days of any such meeting, or within fourteen (14) working days of receipt of the grievance if no such meeting was scheduled, the corporate Vice President (VP), Chief Human Resources Officer (CHRO) or designee will send a written response to the grievant, with a copy to the Union.

4. Step 4 - Arbitration

If the grievance is not resolved at Step 3, the Union shall have ten (10) working days after receipt of the Employer's Step 3 response in which to notify the Employer in writing that it intends to take the grievance to arbitration.

The following procedure shall apply if a grievance is taken to arbitration: The Union and the Employer shall attempt to agree upon an arbitrator.

When parties cannot reach mutual agreement regarding an arbitrator, they will request a list of five (5) names from the State Conciliation and Mediation Service and strike names until an arbitrator is selected. The parties shall flip a coin to determine who strikes first. The parties will alternate the flipping of the coin. A hearing on the grievance shall be held at a time and place agreed upon by the parties and agreeable to the arbitrator, at which both parties shall be allowed to present their respective positions, evidence and arguments. To the extent possible, meetings shall be confined to Monday through Friday unless mutually agreed otherwise.

5. Arbitrability

If any question arises to the arbitrability of the grievance, the question shall first be presented to the arbitrator for resolution. When scheduling with the arbitrator, the parties shall schedule the number of days needed to hear the merits of the case, plus one day for the presentation of evidence and arguments on arbitrability. The parties shall request a bench decision on arbitrability and then, provided the grievance is arbitrable, on the merits of the case. Upon mutual agreement, the parties may submit written briefs on arbitrability and request the arbitrator issue a decision before proceeding to the merits of the grievance, thereby avoiding the extra day of hearing.

The arbitrator's decision will set forth the arbitrator's findings of fact, reasoning and conclusions of the issues submitted. The arbitrator's decision shall be final and binding on all the parties and on any affected employee. The arbitrator's decision or confirmation thereof shall be issued in writing not more than thirty (30) calendar days after the close of the hearing or the filing of briefs, if any, whichever is later.

The arbitrator shall have no authority to:

The Employer, at its expense, may require an examination by a second healthcare provider designated by the Employer, if it reasonably doubts the medical certification initially provided. If the second health care provider's opinion conflicts with the original medical certification, the Employer, at its expense, may require a third, mutually agreeable, healthcare provider to conduct an examination and provide a final and binding opinion. The Employer may require subsequent medical re-certification on a reasonable basis.

If employees request leave because of birth, adoption or foster care placement of a child, any accrued PDL first will be substituted for unpaid family/medical leave.

Section 21.4 - Temporary Modified Work Assignments

1. Temporary modified work assignment may be made by the Employer for qualified employees who are not able to perform their regularly assigned duties due to industrial illness or injury. Because of the limited number of modified/alternative work assignments available, employees will be assigned to such assignments on a "first come, first serve" basis to an assignment for which the employee is qualified. Modified duty assignments shall be reviewed on or about the thirtieth (30th) day, and the sixtieth (60th) day of modified duty for the purposes of evaluating the employee's progress toward returning to normal duties. Modified duty assignments will normally not continue past ninety (90) days unless there is continued progress toward the return to normal duties.
2. Such assignments will be made consistent with the written recommendation of a licensed medical doctor.

In the event that a modified/alternate work assignment cannot be accommodated by the Employer, the employee will remain off work until either a modified/alternative work assignment can be offered or until the employee is released to his/her regular work assignment.

3. This section of the Agreement shall be limited to employees with a disability who are recovering from an industrial illness or injury and who require temporary, short-term, modified work assignments rather than reassignment of the employee's regular work; and to employees with a temporary disability that precludes their returning to their regular work assignment.
4. An employee on temporary modified work assignment shall receive the same pay rate and benefits as she/he received at the time of the industrial injury or illness.

ARTICLE 22 - EDUCATIONAL ASSISTANCE

Section 22.1 – Educational Assistance

Eligible employees (as defined in each section below) may apply for reimbursement of expenses associated with one (1) accredited coursework, two (2) licensure renewal, and three (3) courses providing continuing education units (CEUs).

1. Accredited Coursework Eligibility

Upon completion of one (1) year of continuous full-time service, a full-time employee may request financial assistance for taking accredited educational courses. If an employee needs to change his/her employment status to part-time to complete course(s) subject to this education reimbursement, this must be approved in advance by the Administrator. Changing employment status back to full-time after completion of course(s) is likewise subject to the availability of a full-time position.

2. Accreditation

Approved courses must be taken from an accredited institution. Accredited institutions are Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) approved universities and colleges; or approved professional schools; or institutions approved by the State Department of Education. The course(s) must be work-related or relevant to promotional opportunity within the Company. It is strongly suggested that the employee verify in advance with the Administrator that the course work will qualify for educational assistance.

Note: In order to promote the professional advancement of bargaining union members, the Employer agrees to reimburse bargaining unit employees up to two hundred dollars ($200) for passing the BBS license exam. If enough employees are interested, the Employer will host internal prep supervision. Such reimbursements are on a one-time basis per bargaining unit member.

When operating needs prevent conference requests from being approved as submitted, it is at the supervisor's discretion to approve only certain requests. Such time off shall be scheduled with the employee's supervisor at least two (2) weeks in advance. This language is not intended to restrict the ability of the Employer to provide additional educational leave.

If the course, conference or seminar is work related and approved by the supervisor, the employee will be paid for the time required to attend the conference and required to bring back the training materials to share with other staff. If the course is unapproved by the supervisor then the employee may still be able to attend and use PDL for the time off, upon approval.

Section 22.2 (b) - Reimbursement for Courses offering CEUs Eligibility

The Employer will reimburse eligible employees for educational programs yielding CEUs. Eligible employees must have completed ninety (90) days continuous full-time or part-time service and be fully-licensed or certified in the discipline for which the CEUs are earned. Exceptions to this practice must be approved in advance by the Administrator.

Reimbursement of CEU-related programs is based on service time as follows:
